Dear Uncle Charley,

How do you feel we are all well but I am just getting over the grippe and this is my second day up. Grandma was over Sunday afternoon and she brought a doll we are waiting for you to send the company because we want to send you something Aunt Lulu wants to send you something for Christmas. Well we got your letter but we did not get the card you said you wrote. Well you know five cant send much in 3 lbs. so if a Soldier wants to send a company Mother will send him something for Christmas. During the liberty loan I have been selling bonds I have sold $800 worth of bonds. Grandma took $50 in cash Mother took $50 Aunt L. $50 & Mother has paid on the third loan. She says she is not going to take any more bonds and I will come over every chance she gets it is her birthday Sunday Oct 27, 1918. Grandpa is however. The next letter I write I have fine news write soon.

With love from all

your loving niece
